

Filigree House, Philadelphia, PA

This private residence in Philadelphia's Graduate Hospital neighborhood and features a 4-layer brick screen façade with curved steel support frames. O&A worked closely with the owner and architect to create a unique masonry framework, including multiple layers that bypass in front of the home's street-facing windows to provide privacy, depth, and a striking look. Architect: Moto Designshop

Designing your vision, one detail at a time™